

I am totally against any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Indiana's law has been so beneficial to me since I do not receive as many "marketing" calls as I once did. I hate having my dinner interrupted by a call from some place I have never heard of trying to "sell" me something. If I need to buy, I prefer to purchase locally...not from some foreign voice on a phone.